THE NEW MARYLAND LAW.

The following is the original text of the Putzel racing bill with the amendments as passed at the recent session of the Maryland Legislature, and signed April 7 by Governor Lowndes:

A bill entitled an act to amend article XXVII. of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Gaming," by repealing section 124 A thereof, as enacted by the act of 1894, chapter 237, and re-enacting the same, with amendments, and by adding four new sections to said article, to follow immediately after section 124 A, to be designated sections 124 B, 124 C, 124 D, 124 E.

tion, race course or driving park may be located his, her or their petition for such license, and before granting the said license the said court shall cause notification of said petition to be published, at the cost of the applicant, at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county in which the grounds aforesaid may be located.

Section 2. And be it enacted that this act shall take effect from the date of its passage, but nothing herein contained shall apply to or effect any civil or criminal proceedings at the date aforesaid.

MONTANA CIRCUIT ENTRIES.

It is evident that the Montana circuit is to share in the turf prosperity of the year of grace 1898. The twenty stakes advertised in DAILY RACING FORM, which closed April 16, received an aggregate of 830 nominations, an average of over 41. The Labor Day Handicap, of the guaranteed value of $5,000, closes May 7, and will still further swell the grand total that betokens prosperous and interesting sport in store for Butte and Anaconda.

Among the entries appear the names of many horses that have performed creditably at San Francisco in recent months, such as Borgia, Flashlight, Senator Bland, Ritter Root, Grady, Ostler Joe, Watomba, Ace, Midian, Glorian, Fonsavannah, Dick Behan, Salvation, Don Luis, Paul Pry, Yule, Olive, Punter, Sly, Barracan, Lorena II, Montallade, Highland Ball, Torsida, Count of Flanders, Banewor, Bonibel, Maud Ferguson, Sweet Cakes, Sevens, Modwena, Saintly, Distance, El Mido, E. Come, Owyhee and Lavator, while of horses well known in other sections of the country there are entered such performers as Dan Rice, Goodrich, Frank Thompson, Gallivant, Pontus, Han d'Or, Ed Tipton, Scottish Chief, Joe Clark, J. H. C., Letcher, Sir Ebony, Byron McClelland, Pat Morrissey, May Beach, Dorah Wood, John Havlin, Serrano, and Robair.

All of this will be pleasant information to the host of friends of the energetic and sagacious manager of the Montana circuit, Ed. Tipton. He has formed and built up what is destined to be recognized as one of the most important turf organizations of this country and it is encouraging to be able to give proof that the turfmen of the west are beginning to recognize and reward his labors in a field unthought of for racing purposes three or four years ago.

her field. Amasa ran his race. He closed strong. Ashley outclassed, showed courage and speed and was a good horse at end. Saticoy was badly ridden and made up a lot of ground after being pinched off in the spread on the stretch turn. Step About is a smart filly. She was not well handled today. Tabber. Tiny P is getting to himself again. Keep an eye on him. He showed great speed today. Napton, Reyes and Castake showed some ability, too.
Scratched—On Gwa Nita, 95; Tempse, 95.
